Welcome

The pastor of the First Methodist Church of Little Rock is representing the ministerial alliance of the capital city. We appreciate the monthly visits of members of that body.

The Rev. Roy E. Fawcett is a graduate of Hendrix College and Southern Methodist University. He has held pastorates in southwest Arkansas and is executive secretary of the Little Rock Conference Board of Education.

FELLOWSHIP

Have you ever thought about "Tomorrow's Missionaries?" At the YPCF, thought-provoking aspects will be outlined by Mary Finch, Miyoko Masada, and Asako Sawamura. As Henry Ikemoto presides tonight before leaving for active duty, let's give him excellent support.

The installation of new officers for the CYF will be in charge of Yuri Yaguchi, retiring president. Special music will be featured. Rich experiences of Ridgecrest conferences will be interestingly told by Dr. W. Maxfield Garrett.

The new CYF cabinet members are: Exec. Committee--President, Grace Shiraishi; Vice-Pres., Jessie Yoketa; Secretary, Edith Ann Griswold; Treasurer, Yuri Nakamichi; Social Chrm., Ruth Hase; Enrollment, Yuri Momonoe; Music, Fujiko Kikuchi; Members-at-large; Yuri Yaguchi, Ruth Shiraishi, and Mary Ige.

RELOCATION

Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Hunter and Betty Lu left the center last Friday. From Little Rock, Betty Lu entrained for Texas to continue schooling, while her parents traveled to Indianapolis to take up new work. May God bless you as you launch out on your national field of peace and racial understanding, Dr. Hunter.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS' MEETING FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, AT 7:30 P.M.

APPRECIATION

Kazuko Hamamoto, thank offering to Sunday School upon recovery from operation.

Hisako Kittaka letters with her donation: "Chicago is a large place, but I keep running into old friends. I am working for the Civil Affairs Training Schools at Northwestern Univ. as language secretary." Write--6117 S. Kenwood, Chicago 37, Ill.

Appreciation gift and greetings come from Mary Matsuzawa, 2910 N. 16th St., Philadelphia 32, Pennsylvania.

For departure gifts from Helene Baba and Richard Kusumoto. They helped greatly as S.S. teachers and nisei board members.

with the army

We are glad that you are inviting service men to our church. Write and enclose our church bulletin to your soldier pal today. Tell him about our services and encourage him to attend the post chapel.

Last Sunday, soldier Bob Fujita worshipped with us and left a thank offering for recovery from injuries. We are grateful to God and to you, Bob.

Rose Koyama returned from Camp Grant, Illinois, where she visited Pvt. Fred Koyama, before he was transferred to Fort Lewis, Washington.

Henry Ikimoto will report for active service at Camp Chaffee, Fort Smith, Arkansas, tomorrow morning.

"Please give my best regards to Christian friends," voices Pvt. George N. Asawa, Co. B, 62nd ASFTC, Camp Berkeley, Texas.

Personals

We are glad to have these new teachers in our Senior Sunday School: Miss Mary Moore, Mrs. W. H. Robins, and Mr. W. Hosack. Miss Dolores Jones has joined Sunday School #2 staff.
